

NASA SPACE INTERACTIVE WEBSITES

Kennedy Space Center-Live video feeds of operations and launches

<http://www.ksc.nasa.gov>

NASA Home Page

<http://www.nasa.gov>

- 1) Open Educator tab
 - a. Scroll down Right side of the page, NASA kids club
 - i. Remember these games will help students develop skills needed in science
 - b. Scroll down Left side to Find NASA Eclips

Space place-Spacey things to make

<http://spaceplace.nasa.gov/>

- 2) This site is subdivided into specific categories, all give you lesson plans, teacher guides, and video games for students

Space science news

<http://science.nasa.gov>

Images and animations of Earth <http://visibleearth.nasa.gov/>

Mars Education Activities-go to Downloads

<http://marsed.asu.edu>

<http://www.marsquestonline.org/coolstuff/drivearover/index.html>

NASA Quest Interactive site:

- 3) <http://quest.nasa.gov/>
 - a. 12 Interactive sites scroll down the page to see which ones apply to you class grade level (math, aeronautics, life science)

Planetary Science

<http://planetquest.jpl.nasa.gov/>

- i) Anything to do with Planets, come to this site
- ii) Exploration of planets
- iii) Missions to planets

Eyes on the Solar System: <http://eyes.nasa.gov/index.html>

Eyes on Earth: <http://eyes.nasa.gov/earth/download.html>

NASA Kepler Mission

<http://kepler.nasa.gov/Mission/discoveries/>

- i) Exclusive mission to find Earth Like planets (so far 989)

Interactive book: The Adventure of Amelia the Pigeon

<http://science.hq.nasa.gov/kids/imagers/amelia/>

All my information is below for any questions; please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dr. Lester Morales Mail Code: PSU Kennedy Space Center, FL 32899 321-867-4411
Lester.morales@nasa.gov